Workshops

We have two workshops on the day. Attendance is on a first come first serve basis on the day. If you have indicated you wish to attend, please note this does not secure your seat, it is only an indication of expected numbers on the day.

13.00–14.15

Imposter syndrome and a more assertive me

Blue Room, 4th floor NW3-4

Prospect Education and Skills Manager Rachel Bennett and Prospect Vocational Training Officer Jade Gordon lead an open session on combating Imposter Syndrome. The session will explore what is meant by Imposter Syndrome and assertiveness and how imposter syndrome makes it difficult to act assertively. It will provide a number of tools and techniques to help you act assertively in your roles and help build more inclusive workspaces.

15.45–16.45

Social media masterclass

Yellow Room, 4th floor NW1-2

Bectu Organising Official Constantine Kibaris offers an expert take on getting the best value for the time you invest in your social media presence.

Covering:

- The Platforms: The algorithms, the pitfalls, and avoiding social media fatigue
- The Techniques: Growing engagement, content creation, and what do the numbers mean?
- The Technology: Cameras, lenses, sound, editing, and keeping your social media work mobile.

One-to-Ones

Financial Advice Surgery

with Lighthouse Financial advisors

Helen Andrews and Abolore Awesu

4th Floor SW15

Arrive early to sign up for a time slot on the day, or visit through the day to see when spare spots are available. Please arrive five minutes before your time slot. Bring your questions and get accountancy advice from Lighthouse Financial advisors.

FAA Head Shots

4th floor atrium

Photos are done by a professional photographer on a first-come-first-serve basis. Attendees may get one headshot and one long shot. Each session will take no more than five minutes, so please arrive ready to vogue.

Seminars

NB: Multiple sessions run in the same time slot. Please check which events are running at all times. Spaces are on a first come first serve basis. Expressing interest in a session via Eventbrite does not secure your seat, it is only an indicator for us for numbers.

11.30-12.30

Negotiating masterclass with Sara Putt

Ground floor, Auditorium

Join us for this Negotiating masterclass with Sara Putt of Sara Putt Associates, the leading UK independent agency for Film and TV HODs, Crew and Trainees. This session will help you develop the skills you need to negotiate your rate and terms with confidence – an essential for any freelancer.

11.45-12.45

Filmmakers as changemakers

Yellow Room, 4th floor NW1-2

Change happens in different ways and this can be demonstrated across the film and TV industry. Join the conversation to delve deep into exciting narratives, campaigns and strategies for making an impact using film. Platforming three successful filmmakers telling stories that are close to their hearts, this panel will share their learnings from their projects, past and present. What went well? What would they do differently? What industry changing practices and ideas can we explore to meet the world's current and future socio-ecological needs?

- Alfie Warren-Knight (Filmmaker; Film Strike for Climate founder)
- Martine Ingrid Stephen (Director, XTATX Studios; Events lead, Film Strike for Climate)
- Dark Cloud (DC) (Storyteller; survivor of the Sixties Scoop scandal)
- James Staunton Price (Filmmaker, lecturer and researcher)
- Paula Kahumbu (CEO, Wildlife Direct)

14.30-15.30 – Open to all LPD members

London Production Division Annual Forum: The state of the industry

Ground Floor Auditorium

Join us for a critical discussion on the current challenges facing film and TV. In these uncertain times, this panel brings together influential figures from across the UK industry to answer your questions.

Don't miss this vital opportunity to be part of a solution-oriented dialogue that looks at the future of the industry and how we make it more sustainable

- Marcus Ryder MBE (CEO, Film and TV Charity),
- Samantha Perahia MBE (Head of Production UK, British Film Commission),
- Philippa Childs (Head of Bectu),
- Charlotte Sewell (Branch chair, Bectu Costume and Wardrobe Branch),
- Spencer MacDonald (National Secretary, Bectu)

11.45–12.45

How prepared are you? Working with under-18s in film and TV

Blue Room, 4th floor NW3-4

Welcome to the Broadcast and Film Chaperones and Tutors Branch. Working with U18s can be a risky business – how prepared are you to safeguard your role, production, cast and crew, when working with young cast? Our panel of industry experts will talk about the challenges we all face, how we can proactively mitigate risk, and working with the DfE Children's working regulations.

- Arlene De Cruz (Children's regulatory compliance consultant)
- Paul Byrne (Branch chair, Bectu Broadcast and Film Chaperones and Tutors branch; Education consultant)
- Jay Arthur (First assistant director)
- Robbie Taylor Hunt (Branch chair, Bectu Intimacy Coordinators branch)
